

We have created this privacy policy to demonstrate our firm commitment to your privacy and the protection of your information.

Why did you receive an e-mailing from us?

Our e-mail marketing is permission based. If you received a mailing from us, our records indicate that (a) you have expressly shared this address for the purpose of receiving information in the future ("opt-in"), or (b) you have registered or purchased or otherwise have an existing relationship with us. We respect your time and attention by controlling the frequency of our mailings. If you believe you have received unwanted, unsolicited e-mail sent via this system or purporting to be sent via this system, please forward a copy of that e-mail with your comments to unwantedmessages@naac4art.org for review.

How can you stop receiving e-mail from us?

Each e-mail sent contains an easy, automated way for you to cease receiving e-mail from us. If you wish to do this, simply send a message to: unsubscribe@naac4art.org with "UNSUBSCRIBE" in the subject line, or click on the link provided at the bottom of the e-mail messages.

How we protect your privacy

We use appropriate security measures to protect against the loss, misuse and alteration of data used by our system.

Sharing and Usage

We will never share, sell, or rent individual personal information with anyone for their promotional use without your advance permission or unless ordered by a court of law. Information submitted to us is only available to the NAAC board designates managing this information for purposes of contacting you or sending you e-mails based on your request for information, and to contracted service providers for purposes of providing services relating to our communications with you.

Privacy Policy Changes

This policy was revised on March 2008.

A volunteer agency dedicated to connecting artists of all ages with the community at large and to fostering creativity in all areas of life.
